

Idioms Lecture

Year 1

A taste of your own medicine

- to receive the same treatment that you have given to others.

Back to square one

- to start over again from the beginning.

Back to Square One

Barking up the wrong tree

- to pursue a mistaken or misguided course of action.

Bite the bullet

- to endure a difficult situation with courage and determination.

EVAN KELLY

Break the ice

- to make a beginning in a social situation where people are unfamiliar with each other.

Cut corners

- to do something in a hasty or incomplete way in order to save time or money.

Don't count your chickens before they hatch

- to not make plans based on something that may not happen.

Every cloud has a silver lining

- every negative situation has a positive aspect.

Give the benefit of the doubt

- to believe someone's claim or statement without proof.

A penny for your thoughts

- a way of asking someone what they are thinking about.

Caught red-handed

- to be caught in the act of doing something wrong.

Hit the nail on the head

- to be exactly right about something.

Pull someone's leg

- to tease or joke with someone.

You're pulling my leg!
(You're joking!)

THANK YOU